

Homework?

Each group will be assigned an article

<https://sn56.scholastic.com/pages/promotion/navigationlps/112221/debate-do-kids-need-homework.html>

1

<https://www.timeforkids.com/g56/hwdebate/>

2

<http://www.penpalschools.com/blog/fake-news-examples-for-students-no-more-homework-in-honduras>

3

<https://gradelearning.com/do-students-have-too-much-homework/>

4

Read the Article with your group and choose a point of view that you will present to the class.

We think that it is important for students to have homework.

Yes

We think that Students should not have homework.

No

Remember our discussion guidelines when discussing your point of view:

1

Wait for your turn and while you listen:
be attentive, no side conversations

2

State your point of view while keeping a friendly tone

3

Ask questions and ask for evidence

4

Express your opinions and respect other's opinions

Use the information from the article you read to argue your point.

Argument 1

Argument 2

Argument 3

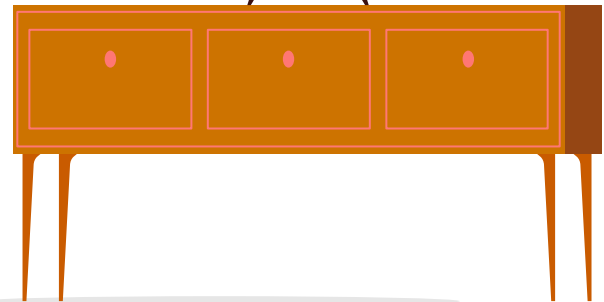

Argument 1

Argument 2

Argument 3

Reflection:

Was the conversation in the classroom civil?

How did the reporters present these articles?

Are the points based on evidence?

Is the article reliable?

Were the points in the article valid?

Check the date of the article and the source

Thank you for your participation!

